

We are Looking to Acquire Established Window Cleaning Companies

Contract Services Group, Inc. (CSG) is a recognized leader in the building services industry. With over 34 years of experience CSG has a reputation of establishing long-term business relationships with its clients. CSG is big enough to have experience working with numerous companies in varying industries, but small enough to be able to provide personalized customer service for our business partners.

We are committed to providing the highest level of cleaning services with safety being the foundation of our success. CSG has grown by staying true to its core values of positively transforming and impacting the clients we serve, the communities, and our employees.

Contract Services Group is currently seeking to acquire established high-rise and commercial window cleaning companies in the Southern California, Southern Nevada, and Arizona regions. We are looking for ambitious and respected companies that wish to become part of our organization. All inquires will be both confidential and discreet.
